Who we are:

OGAG is a group of District Residents and Government Leadership working together to evaluate the District's work towards becoming a more open and transparent government. The group meets regularly to understand the District's policies and procedures and formulates recommendations for the Administration on how to make government more transparent and open for all its residents, businesses, and visitors.

Agenda:

- Roll call and quorum
- Public witnesses
- Round robin introduction of members (new and returning)
- Review Mayor's Order 2016-094 which established the group
- Open discussion among members, we have not met in a year and have a new Chair and several new members:
  - What do we want to accomplish?
  - How often should we meet?
  - Do we wish to reestablish subcommittees?
- Next meeting virtual, in person, or hybrid?
